

Victor Da Costa

Photographer | Creative Coordinator

I don't know where to start

But I just finished my first portfolio

I hope the world sees my craft

Nervous, yes, as this is my final draft

I'm also curious to see where my journey takes me next

Let me visualise my mission as you read this text

I take pictures, but I aim to create and portray experiences

Experiences which bring people together

A contrast of talents mingled to exalt creativity

An endless journey of innovation and wonder

So that one's perception of life may ponder

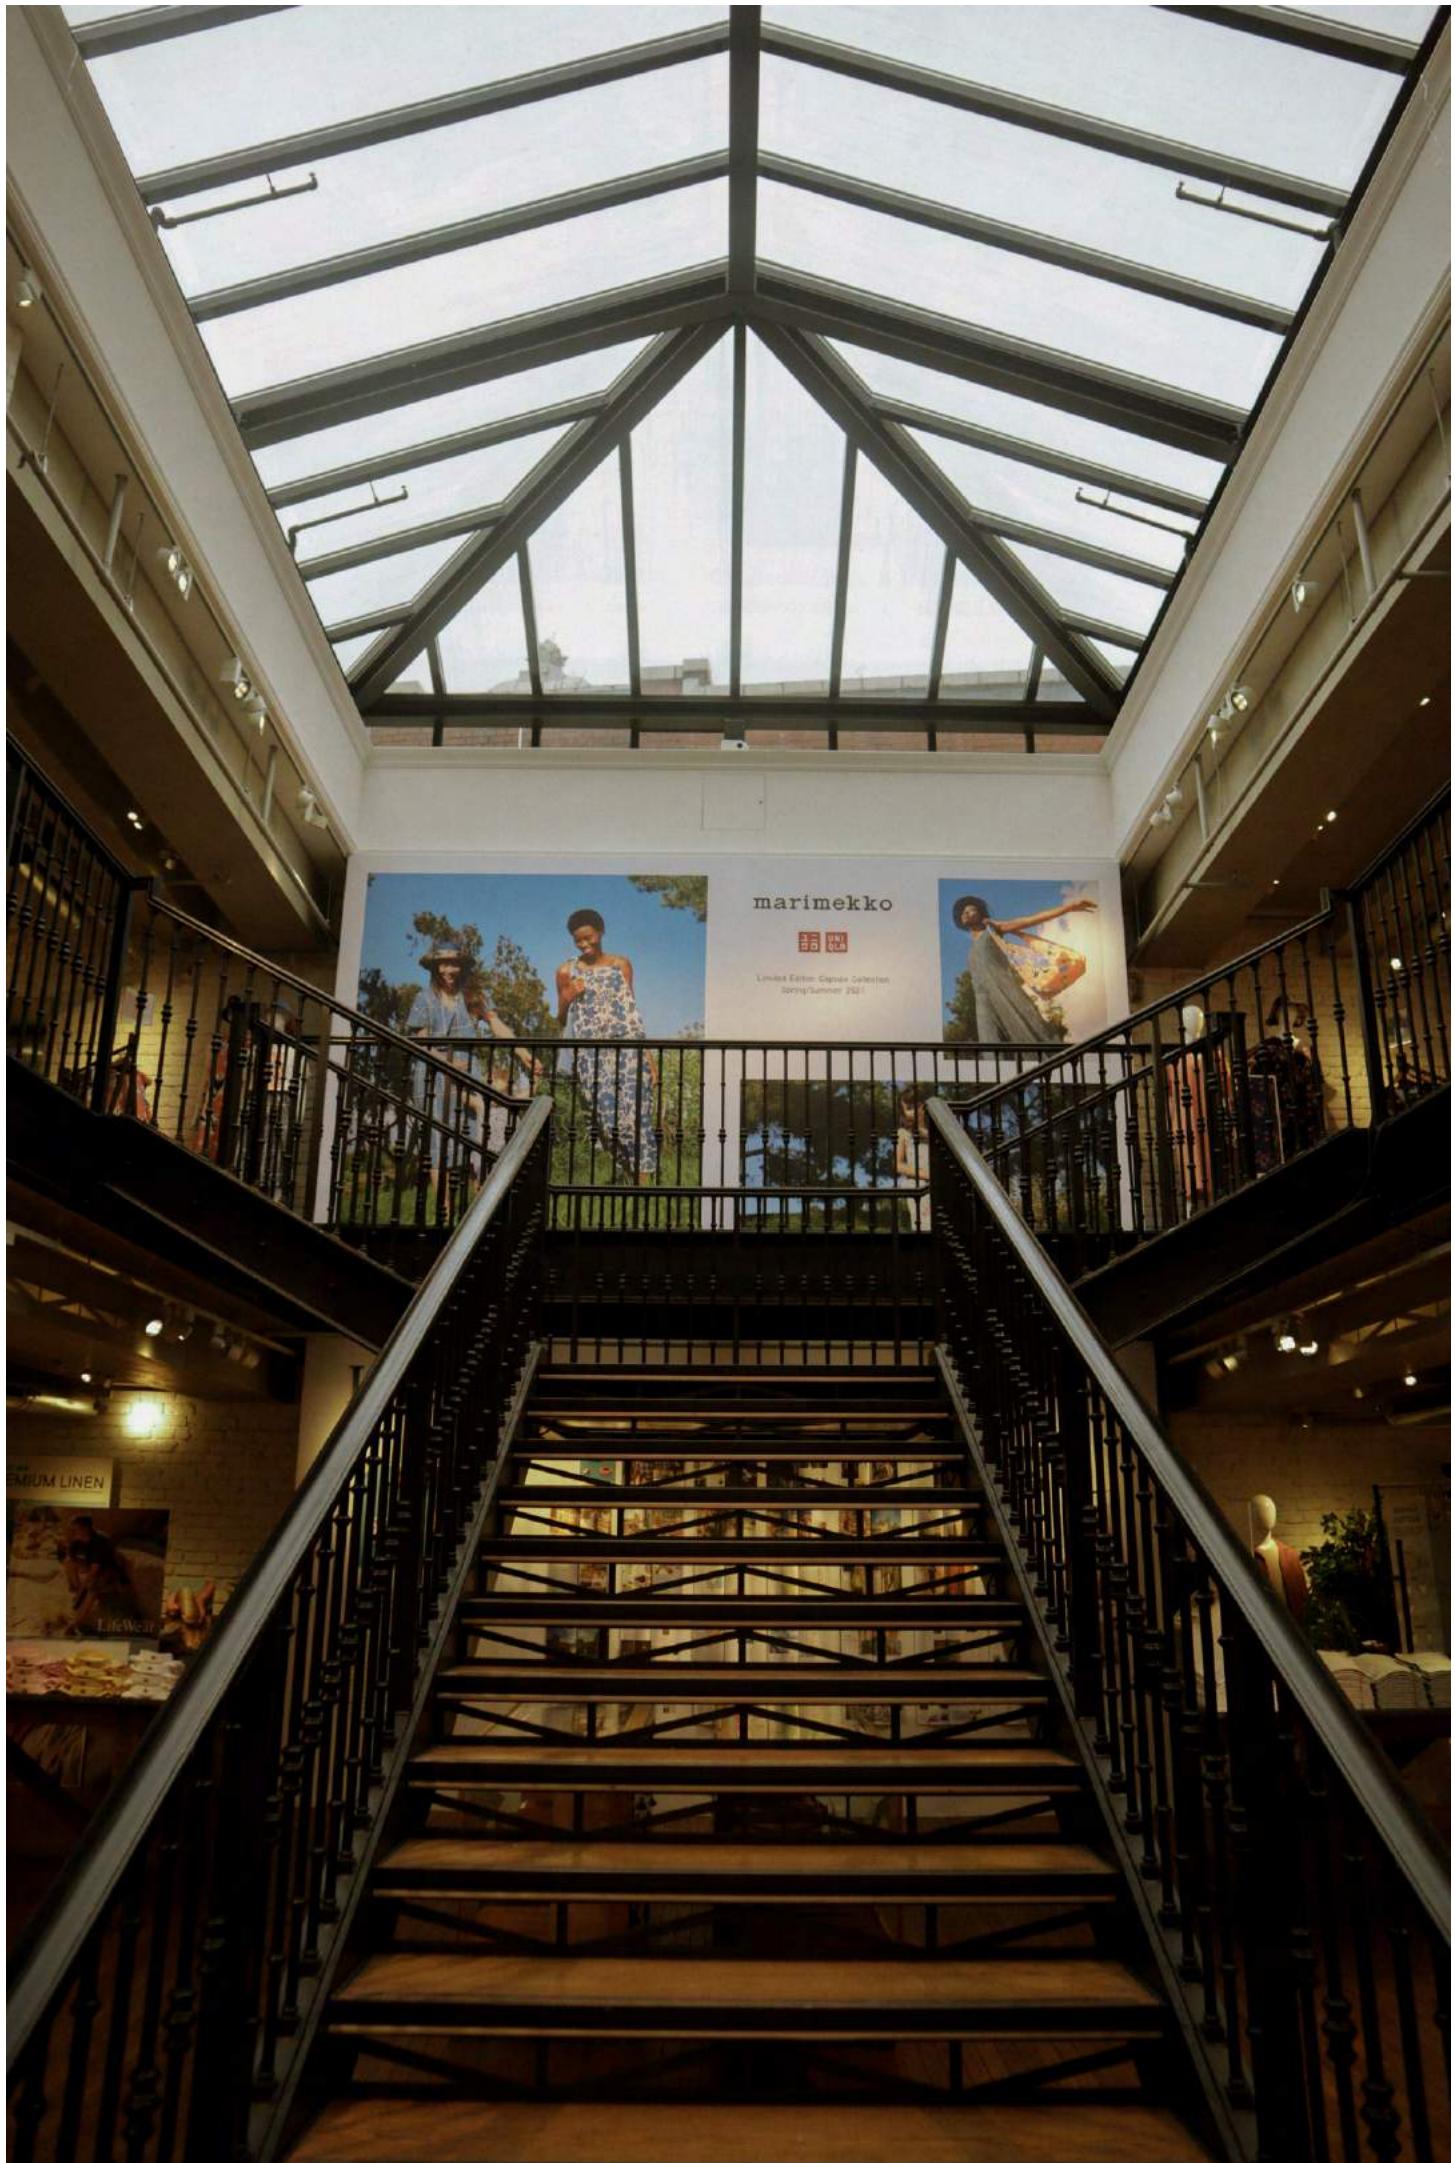

And marvel in the fascination of artistry

I hope to remodel the notion of creativity

Especially to those who are seeking Yah

This is all for his glory

I hope this has inspired you
Whether it inspires the emergence of something new
Or provides another reason to enjoy life's treasures

I have been helping co-ordinate events for two years
It's time for me advance into the creative aspect of that

To amplify experience beyond logistics

Resonate with audiences

And bring joy to all faces

This is the start of something new.
